

A GREAT PLACE TO DO BUSINESS

W elcome to the City of New Carrollton! With approximately 13,000 residents, we are a small, diverse community in an ideal location.

Located strategically between 3 major cities with easy access to public transportation and major highways, New Carrollton is an excellent place for tourists and business visitors to the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area to stay.

Beautiful tree-lined streets, single family and multi-family dwellings are characteristics of the City, and residents find that the charm of and the services provided by the City of New Carrollton make for a great quality of life. With our own Public Works, Police and Code Enforcement Departments, we ensure the safety and order of our city. The City of New Carrollton has won the Prince George's County Beautification Award four times and been named "Tree City USA" twice because of our green spaces!

Businesses find that our Enterprise Zone designation, economic development initiatives, location, and friendly residents make the city a great place to start a business!

FOUR POINTS by SHERATON in New Carrollton, MD
Hotel and Conference Center

A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE

Schools

There are three elementary schools and one middle school in the heart of the City, as well as two high schools in nearby Greenbelt and Riverdale Park.

Library System

In addition to its vast array of books and media, the New Carrollton Library also sponsors programs and events for all age groups.

Parks and Recreation

New Carrollton has three major parks, five Tot Lots, two large ball fields, and Robert Potter Fitness and Exercise Course. The City has lighted tennis courts operated by the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission (M-NCPPC), and is also home to the New Carrollton Recreation Club's pool.

Nearby Attractions

* FedEx Field (Washington Redskins) (5.0 mi/8.1 km)
* Prince George's Sports & Learning Center (5.0 mi/8.1 km)
* Enterprise Golf Course (6.0 mi/9.7 km)
* Six Flags America (6.0 mi/9.7 km)
* University of Maryland College Park (6.0 mi/9.7 km)
* Bowie State University (9.0 mi/14.5 km)
* Howard University (11.0 mi/17.7 km)
* George Washington University (12.0 mi/19.3 km)
* The Show Place Arena & Prince George's Equestrian Center (21.0 mi/33.8 km)
* Baltimore Harbor (30.0 mi/48.3 km)
* John Hopkins University (31.0 mi/49 km).

Local Businesses

Computer Science Corporation (CSC) (1.0 mi/1.6 km)
* Internal Revenue Service (1.0 mi/1.6 km)
* Doctors Community Hospital (1.08 mi)
* United States Department of Agriculture (5.0 mi/8.1 km)
* Andrews Air Force Base (13.0 mi/20.9 km)

NEW CARROLLTON

THE IDEAL LOCATION

The City of New Carrollton is a suburban residential community, located in central Prince George's County, Maryland, approximately eight miles northeast of Washington, DC. New Carrollton boasts a prime metropolitan location between the District of Columbia, Baltimore, and Annapolis. The City has convenient access to highways, including the Capital Beltway (Interstate 95), the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, and John Hanson Highway (U.S. Route 50).

New Carrollton has several bus stops, and its very own Metro Station located just off of 85th Avenue and Ellin Road, about one mile south of Route 450/Annapolis Road. The New Carrollton Metro Station also provides access to Amtrak rail service and The Maryland Rail Commuter Service (MARC)

